BIO

vandermeer: SHOEGAZING-INDIE

vandermeer from Trier (Germany) play shoegazing indie miles with a touch of pop, but far away from plain-Jane pop. Imagine their sound as if you hear the music from behind a closed door and then the door opens...

"vandermeer manage effortlessly to balance between small stage and big stage, between smoky nightclub and stadium." – hunderttausend.de

"You'll find melancholy without sadness, happiness without regret." – Saarbrücker Zeitung

vandermeer was founded in 2011; their current line-up of Harmke van der Meer (vocals, synthesizer), Florian P. Stiefel (guitar, kaossilator, noise, keyboard), Jo Hansson (bass, noise, synthesizer) and Bernd Erasmy (drums, noise) exists since 2016.

Their new album „panique automatique“, engineered, recorded and mixed by band member Jo Hansson, follows in 2019 on LP, CD and digitally via Barhill Records (Distribution: Cargo Records). The album comes 3 years after their EP „can´t we?“ in 2015. Their first album, „polygraph“, was released in 2013 after a successful crowdfunding campaign.
